

Cheap Production Main Problem In Farm, Says Rast

Better Seed and More
Feedstuffs Needed
This Season

COUNTY LOOKING UP

Record of 25 Years' Advance Revealed By Spragins at Meet

More than 50 Hempstead county farmers attended the Agricultural Outlook Conference which opened Wednesday morning at Hope city hall, and is continuing throughout the day. High lights of the morning session were an address on cheap farm production, by Loy E. Rast of Newport, Ark., noted farmer and banker; the farm situation in Hempstead county, by Ralph Routon, president of Hope chamber of commerce; the history of Hempstead county's farm progress, by C. C. Spragins, cashier of the Citizens National Bank; and specific discussion of the trend of agricultural prices, by A. P. Brodell, agricultural economist of Washington, D. C.

Rast's Speech

Mr. Rast said the Arkansas farmer must lower his production costs if he is to continue to meet competition from other sections of the United States, and from abroad. There are four factors in cheapening production costs, he said. These are:

1. Good seed
2. Better farm machinery
3. Planting better land in cotton, and eliminating the marginal lands which are profitable only when cotton is selling at peak prices.
4. Grow more feedstuffs, so that cotton will be a cash crop and won't have to pay the farmer's grocery bill.

History of County

One of the most interesting speeches of the day was made by Mr. Spragins, local banker, who described the change in agricultural history in the last 25 years in Hempstead county.

"Twenty-five years ago," he said, "we had one crop, no markets to speak of, no roads, no city paving and no sidewalks. Total bank deposits of the county then were $500,000."

"Today it is a different story. In 1929 Hempstead county shipped out probably 22,000 bales of cotton, worth around $2,000,000. But at the same time it produced and sold 450 carloads of watermelons; 350 cars of cantaloupes, 100 cars of radishes, cars of tomatoes and 19 cars of potatoes—this truck being worth in the aggregate about $500,000. An additional $37,000 was returned in milk checks from the Kraft-Phenix cheese factory. And today our county's bank deposits total $3,000,000."

"All this means increased farm prosperity, and with a more prosperous farm community Hope will be a better city."

"To perpetuate this prosperity we should consider ways and means of raising more feedstuffs. The farmer who is poor usually doesn't raise a high feed."

"We need to follow up not only the usual diversified farming program, but the new dairy development. We need to get rid of the cattle tick and build up larger herds and more milk production. If we do this, the reduction in cotton acreage will take care of itself."

Pine Bluff Robber Being Held In Ohio

Warden S. L. Todhunter
Leaves To Return Terry To State Pen.

LITTLE ROCK, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Ohio officers today informed Warden S. L. Todhunter of the State penitentiary, that George Terry, escaped Pine Bluff bank robber, has been arrested and is being held for return to Arkansas at Toledo, Ohio.

Warden Todhunter left this afternoon with an order from Governor Purnell to the governor of Ohio for the custody of Terry. The escaped bank robber admits his identity, according to a message from chief of police L. J. Hass.

The capture of Terry ends a long search by Warden Todhunter and other Arkansas officials that began last October 5 when Terry escaped from Tucker farm where he was sentenced to serve 4 years for burglary of the People's State Bank and Trust company in Pine Bluff.

Terry's search has extended as far as Lima, Peru, where it was thought at one time that he had been captured.

—Now It Can Be Told—

The "act of God" which ended the road tour of "Coquette," starring Helon Hayes, above, in Los Angeles last July, has proved to be an eight-pound baby girl. The child was born to the actress and her playwright husband, Charles MacArthur, in New York the other day. It was as an "act of God" that Producer Jed Harris had explained the abrupt closing of the show to the other members of the cast after Miss Hayes had announced she was to become a mother. Notwithstanding, the other actors were awarded $3050 against Harris in suits which followed.

Resumes Work In Alan Frey Trial

Little Rock Druggist Is Charged With Attack
Upon Two Girls.

LITTLE ROCK, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Reporting to Judge McGee in First Division Circuit court shortly after midnight that it was unable to agree in the trial of Alan Frey, local druggist, charged with a statutory offense, the jury resumed deliberations at 9 a. m. today, in an effort to arrive at a verdict.

The case was given to the jury at 9 p. m. yesterday after final arguments were delivered, and at 11 o'clock requested portions of the testimony to be read by a clerk, likewise the court repeated instructions of a criminal trial.

Frey was tried on only one of two charges for an attack upon two Sebastian high school girls last October: His companion, J. G. Cabe was recently convicted and sentenced on a similar charge.

The verdict was returned after five hours of deliberation and after a jury spent the night out. The verdict could be returned with reference to any one of four charges. Another indictment against Frey is pending but is not scheduled for trial.

Nevada Ships Five Carloads of Peas

Are Expected To Bring More Than $6,000 To Farmers.

PRESCOTT, Feb. 19.—Five carloads or more than 3,000 bushels of Whip-poorwill peas, will be shipped by Nevada county farmers this week. Loading began under the direction of County Agent A. G. Thomas and the Nevada County Cooperative Association, and will be continued until farmers have brought in all the peas they wish to sell at the present time. A car also will be loaded at Anthony's switch, near Rosston.

The peas are expected to bring more than $6,000 to the farmers.

Boys Demonstrate Cotton Average

Show County Acreage
Could Be Cut 50%,
Maintain Average.

Seventeen Hempstead county 4-H Cotton Club boys conclusively demonstrated that the cotton acreage of the county could be cut at least 50 per cent and still maintain the county's average cotton production, according to Lynn L. Smith, county agent.

These seventeen boys know their cotton. They used pure seed, of varieties adapted to Hempstead county, judiciously fertilized, practiced thick spacing, side dressed at chopping time, and cultivated sufficiently to curb weed growth. As a result of this cotton production method, which could be easily employed by every farmer in this county, these 4-H Cotton Club boys made an average yield of 359.4 pounds of lint per acre, or two times the state's average.

Van Jones of Fulton community led the group with a yield of 603 pounds of lint on a measured acre, and was awarded the county prize, a gold watch, given by the Chilean Nitrate of Soda Educational Bureau.

Eight hundred 4-H Club boys in 37 counties competing in this contest in Arkansas made an average yield of 448.5 pounds, or nearly a bale to the acre. All the boys followed the above method of cropping and used the "Extension Service Method" of fertilization. In the upland sections of the state they used the following mixture: 200 pounds Chilean Nitrate of Soda, 300 pounds of acid phosphate and 50 pounds muriate of potash per acre. In the lowland sections they used 200 pounds Chilean Nitrate of Soda per acre.

In many instances the boy doubled his father's yield per acre.

Women's Club Have Meeting Yesterday

Plans Completed for Sixth Annual District Conference Here.

The Hope Business and Professional Club held its regular semi-monthly dinner at the Hotel Barlow yesterday evening, with a splendid attendance. There was no program, as it was deemed advisable to devote all the time to business.

A report of the success of the recent benefit bridge party at the Saenger theater was given and resolutions of appreciation to all those who cooperated in making it a success, were drafted.

The program committee presented the name of Miss Mary Arnold and she was unanimously welcomed into the club.

Miss Elizabeth Harrison, president, appointed Mrs. D. M. Stuart personnel research chairman to complete the term of Miss Mary Buechley, whose membership has been transferred to the Conway club.

Plans were completed for the entertainment of the Sixth District Conference, which convenes at the City Hall at 2:30 Saturday afternoon. All local members were urged to register and buy their banquet and fellowship breakfast tickets at the registration booth at the Barlow Hotel Saturday morning. The booth will be opened at 10 a. m.

Miss Margaret Simms, program chairman, read the program which her committee has outlined and it assures a profitable session. Following the banquet, which will be held at the Barlow Hotel Saturday evening, the club will entertain the visitors with a picture show party at the Saenger.

Miss Ruth Rich, national field secretary, will be honor guest of the conference and the principal speaker, but the sessions will be replete with round table discussions, presided over by state chairmen and representatives of visiting clubs. An address by the state president, Miss Ruth Alice Wilson of El Dorado, will also be featured. The El Dorado Glee Club is to be present and have charge of group singing and the Hope club will present Mrs. Talbot Field, soprano.

Following the fellowship breakfast Sunday morning, the entire body will attend the Methodist church services, conducted by the pastor, Dr. Francis A. Buddin, assisted by the choir.

A new club, Arkadelphia, was welcomed into the Sixth District and representatives from it are to attend the conference.

Plans are already being formulated by the local organization for a large attendance to the state convention at Fayetteville in April, and representatives are expected to attend the regional conference in Manitou, Colorado, in June.

Death List Totals Ten Following New Jersey Explosion

Sixty Were Injured In Three Terrific Blasts of Oil Company.

DOUBTFUL IF 20 LIVE

Gas Fumes Ignited From
Portable Forges Used
By Workmen.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Feb. 19.—(AP)—The rank of 60 injured persons, who were victims of an explosion at the Standard Oil refinery at Linden, near here yesterday were depleted today as the death list reached 10.

Among the 50 labors who are in three hospitals here, the recovery of 20 is doubtful. It is feared several of these will be permanently blinded.

The explosion occurred at 3:55 p. m. yesterday in the alcohol plant of refinery. J. Carringer, general manager of the company, said the blast was caused by the breaking of a gas line. Survivors of the explosion say gas fumes ignited from the portable forges used by workmen in construction of a new building near the one story structure housing the alcohol plant.

The night shift of 1,100 persons had started work at 3 p. m. yesterday and had been on duty only 55 minutes when they heard a terrific explosion followed immediately by two lesser blasts.

Rotary Birthday Party Tomorrow

Anniversary Will Be Ob-

The birthdays of Rotary International and the Hope Rotary club will be celebrated together with a dinner and entertainment at 7 o'clock Thursday night in Hotel Barlow.

George W. Robison is in charge of the program at the Barlow, which will be curtailed in time for the club to attend the last showing of "Rio Rita" at the Saenger where they will be the guests of Manager Matt Press.

On its 11th anniversary the Hope club holds an exceptionally strong position in local community life. At the last luncheon meeting, when the program was in charge of Ed McCorkle, the attendance committee reported that Hope defeated the record-breaking Stamps club for percentage of attendance during January—and attendance all through the current year has set a high record.

President E. F. McPadden, who has been ill of influenza, will be present at tomorrow night's meeting. Owing to the night meeting Thursday noon will be omitted, club officials announced.

Senator Robinson Makes Speech

Says American People Would Oppose Entering Into Politics.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—(AP)—The belief that American public opinion would be "slow to accept agreement" which does not have reduction of naval armament in view, was voiced by Senator Joe T. Robinson, a member of the American delegation to the conference in a speech he made today before the association of American correspondents in London when he presented to them his opinion of "what the United States expects of the London conference."

Senator Robinson expressed confidence that the American people would be opposed for the government to enter into any security pact among European powers. "My understanding is that the people of the United States would avoid, if possible, any involvement into European politics," he said.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—(AP)—The five naval conference today adjourned until next Wednesday. Committees experts continued work in which they were engaged.

The American secretary urged the holiday for the conference in order to give the French an opportunity for the adjustment of domestic situations growing out of the falling of the Tardieu cabinet.

Arnold To Preside Lewisville Court

Made Necessary By Continued Illness of Judge
J. H. McCollum.

LEWISVILLE, Feb. 19.—W. H. Arnold of Texarkana was chosen as judge to preside over, LaFayette County Circuit Court. The selection was made necessary by the continued illness of Judge J. H. McCollum. Court was opened yesterday morning.

The most important case on the docket is that of the administrator of the estate of the late Sheriff J. W. Miller against the Home Life Insurance company, for $10,000. Sheriff Miller is alleged to have killed himself September 23, 1929.

The case was taken out of court with the insurance company, which bore a suicide clause stating that the company would pay beneficiaries in full if the act was not committed before the policy had been in effect a year, but if he committed suicide before that time, only $1,000 would be paid. The policy lapsed 23 days of having been in force for a year. The administrator was tendered $1,000 which was refused.

The verdict of the coroner's jury on Mr. Miller's death was "Death by gun-shot wounds, probably self-inflicted."

Officials revealed after his death that he was short in his accounts from $10,000 to $13,000, and that he had worried about the shortage and acted suspiciously before his death.

Everyman's Class Will Meet Tonight

Everyman's Bible Class of the First Christian church will hold a cornmeal and cabbage party at the church bungalow at 7 o'clock tonight. It was announced today. It will be a typical Jiggs party, the committee said, with a belligerent Maggie and her rolling pin just around the corner. Members of the class and their friends are invited to help make the event one of the best in the church year.

Mining Congress To Meet In Little Rock

Will Convene West of the Mississippi for First Time.

LITTLE ROCK, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Meeting west of the Mississippi river for the first time, the fifth annual industrial development conference of the Southern Division of the American Mining Congress will convene in Little Rock for a three-day session on March 10.

In conjunction with the the convention, Governor Parnell of Arkansas has called a conference of southern governors to discuss means of coordinating the industrial development programs of the various southern states.

Sponsors of the program have announced that discussion of industrial development will replace topics relating solely to mining. Officials of the congress and its divisions said that several years ago they took the position that since every industry and every line of human endeavor utilizes minerals in one form or another they should concern themselves with the development of industry in general.

Approximately 1200 delegates are expected to attend the session which will include two days of business meetings and one day devoted to sightseeing.

Russellville Man Is Dead Following A Mine Explosion

Body of Harry Anderson Is Found Shortly Before Noon Today

IMPRISONED BY ROCK

Rescue Workers Experience Difficulty In Reaching Men

CLARKSVILLE, Ark., Feb. 19.—(AP)—The body of Harry Anderson, aged 55, a boss fireman, who was entombed in the east shaft of a mine following an explosion early today, was reported found shortly before noon.

He succumbed after being effected with a deadly after damp. George Goodwin, also a fire boss, entered the mine with Anderson about 2:30 p. m. today, Anderson taking the east shaft and Goodwin the west. At 5 a. m. today Goodwin entered the east shaft and was there to meet Anderson there, and where he discovered the explosion.

A rock which had fallen entombed Anderson. A rescue crew was immediately organized, and experienced great difficulty in breaking through the rocks where Anderson was held imprisoned.

The cause of the blast was not determined. Anderson and Goodwin carried safety electric lamps into the mine, and Anderson did not smoke tobacco. An investigation was begun by mine authorities of the Arkansas Mining company, who are owners. The mine was controlled by the McCullister Fuel company of McCallsister, Okla., and by state mine inspector Claude Steegle, of Fort Smith.

Anderson's home was in Russellville, Arkansas.

Bishop Boaz Will Visit In This City

Will Work Here In the Interest of Million Dollar Campaign.

Bishop H. A. Boaz, presiding bishop of the Methodist Church, South, in Arkansas, will visit Hope on March 10, where he will work in interest of the Hendrix-Henderson-Galloway Million Dollar campaign. His visit in this city comes as scheduled on the extensive tour of the state which he is making during the months of February and March. He will probably be accompanied by either Dr. J. H. Reynolds, president of Hendrix-Henderson, or by Dr. J. M. Williams, president of Galloway Women's College.

The purpose of the tour, as expressed by directors of the campaign, is to complete and solidify the organization of alumni and supporters of the two colleges in various parts of the state, and to formulate closer bonds between people of Arkansas at large and the general campaign committee at its Little Rock headquarters. Bishop Boaz will also endeavor to impress the vital need of the two institutions, and the outstanding opportunity offered at this time for investment in the welfare of tomorrow's men and women, upon citizens of the communities he will visit.

Work of Bishop Boaz has met with annual sympathy and success in each city he has been able to reach, and the campaign committee plans to begin active field work immediately upon completion of the tour. Each unit of the Methodist church and of the alumni of the two colleges will work in coordination during the drive, with the purpose of insuring the continued benefits derived from the existence of Hendrix-Henderson and Galloway colleges.

Mexico Puts Ban On Pistol "Toting"

Is New Order of President Rubio, Who Was Wounded 11 Days.

Mexico City, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Mexico City police have begun to stop civilians in the streets, slap them on their hips to see if they are wearing guns, ask a few questions and let them go.

The actions are the result of a new order by President Pascual Ortiz Rubio, who was wounded 10 days ago by an assassin shortly after his inauguration. The order prohibits anyone except those connected with the military and police departments, and such civilians as have permits, to carry guns.

A superficial knowledge of Mexico is sufficient to give an understanding of the vast proportions of the president's project and the difficulties it presents.

Pistol toting has been common here for so long that it has come to be regarded by the average citizen as his inalienable right. To convince him that he is entitled to no such privilege is expected to take considerable persuasion and perhaps some force.

OUT OUR WAY

4,000,000 Brows Wrinkle, As Tax Deadline, March 15, Draws Near

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Uncle Sam expects more than 4,000,000 individual income tax returns for 1929 to come his way before March 15.

Every single person who had a net income of $1,500 or more for the year, or a gross income of $5,000 or more, and married couples who had net incomes of $3,500 or more, or gross incomes of $5,000 or more, must file returns.

Returns are to be made on special forms with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which each person lives.

Returns are to be made on special forms with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which each person lives.

The new tax is one-half of one per cent normal tax on the first $4,000 in excess of personal exemption and credits, two per cent normal tax on the balance of net income.

There is a surtax on net incomes of more than $10,000.

"Gross incomes" includes all income derived from any source whatever, unless it is exempt from tax by law. "Net income" means gross income less various deductions allowed.

A taxpayer also may claim $400 for each person dependent on him for chief support, if such person is under 18 years of age or incapable of self-support.

Constance Mario of Chicago complained to the police that his wife struck him while he was ironing his shirts.

Late cold weather is said to have added oil to the Oroville, Cal., olive crop.

The law provides that a single person, who is "head of a family," shall be allowed the same personal exemptions as a married person.

When husband and wife, living together, make separate returns, either may claim the $3,500 exemption or they may divide it.

Most taxpayers are salaried persons who are entitled to 20 per cent credit on their "earned net income." To arrive at this credit correctly, the taxpayer first should compute the amount payable without earned income credit, then deduct 25 per cent. The balance is the tax due.

"Earned income" is defined as "wages, salaries, professional fees and other amounts received as compensation for personal services actually rendered."

Following is an example of how an unmarried taxpayer, with no dependents would compute his tax on a net income of $5,000:

Net income	$5,000.00
Less personal exemption	$1,500.00
Balance taxable at one-half of one per cent	$3,500.00
One-half of one per cent of $3,500	17.50
Less 25 per cent of $17.50 earned income credit	4.38
Balance of tax payable	13.12

James Morrissey ran up to a policeman in Alton, Ill., and begged to be locked up for safety, when pursued by several women as a theft suspect.

The annual payroll in Texas of the common carrier bus and truck industry totals about $29,000,000.

Boy Re-Opens Kidnaping Probe

His lips sealed by fear, 10-year old junior Manna, above, kept secret the identity of the kidnaper of Melvin Horst, 4, at Orrville, O., for more than a year, according to a new story he has just told police. Declaring his previous testimony was false, young Manna named Earl Conard 42, shown at the left, as the slayer of his little playmate on December 27, 1928. Conard denies the charge. Two men were sent to prison on Junior's original testimony, but later released. The Horst boy was never found.

HOOKS & SLIDES

Why Golfers Get Blue When It Rains

A heart-rending complaint registered in the upper reaches of the night club world, that being so blue when it rains, is being heard here and there among the men who play golf. The reason is Denny Shute, a young man from Columbia, Mo., who goes along single and in the rain at a pace so swift and sure that there isn't a penny left for the others. He gets all through Mr. Shute's game and all that the other golfers get is wet.

When the Los Angeles Open, which was played around in a way that was beautiful to watch, while the other club couldn't seem to get that ball up to the pin. At the end there was, high and wet, a place where some of the other golfers even finish.

It rained in Texas, where Mr. Shute played in 277 to win the Lone Star Open. Your correspondent investigated. "Why could Shute play so much better than other golfers in the rain? Maybe the explanation rests in one shot that Shute can make better than anybody else we ever have seen with a golf club in his hand. That is the high pitch to the green, where there is 100 to 150 yards to cover. Denny pitches his ball high on this shot and if the green is hard, there are times when it bounces and rolls. When the ground is wet the ball drops with a thud and stays put.

That is the reason why golfers who play their approaches for a bounce and roll to the green get that blue feeling when they play with Shute."

A Point About Iowa

IOWA, after being spanked for getting caught, has been duly chastised by the Big Ten. Meaning the dean or more athletes, it is intelligible that Iowa might be called into line again have been cast in the role of villains.

Iowa has been absolved, but those who were handling the ball who led to her downfall—what has become of them? Have they been sent to Devil's Island? Have they been hanged as yet? If not, by all means the Big Ten has left something undone in this matter.

The dozen or more desperate characters, we mean, who accepted loans as high as $85 from the "unofficial fund"—have the police been given their Bertillon records? Has the Big Ten taken adequate steps to protect the sanctity of our homes against these maulers?

We understand that only one of the desperadoes has repaid part of the money that was loaned from the fund. Mike Farrah, conscience-stricken, sent back part of his ill-gotten gains last summer. The others probably are hardened criminals. Maybe they have accepted as much as $5 from time to time from this "fund" until the total ran to such a serious amount as $15 or $20, and they just don't care any more. For these dark deeds there should be no mercy.

Chuck Klein Trains Bat On the Mighty Babe Ruth's Homer Record

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Chuck Klein, mighty baseball wallflower of the National league, believed he's the boy to shatter Babe Ruth's all-time record of 60 home runs, and that he might as well do it this year.

The local boy's 43 homers last season made him the National league champion and helped considerably to awaken the lowly Philadelphia club.

Looking back over Klein's record, it is apparent he has reason to believe he can better his own mark, and threaten the Babe's. Last year was

KANSAS CITY, Kan., Feb. 18.—(AP)—Charged with beating to death Captain Thomas A. Sanders, aged 61, retired Great Lakes ship owner, William E. Skelton, aged 53, told officers he would like to go to Lenexa, Kan., the scene of the crime, and be mobbed by his neighbors.

"I sure don't want to get in a penitentiary," he said. "I want to die. That is my principle. I hope they get together down there and mob me or shoot me. I want to die—that will get me out of this trouble and that's the way to pay for murder."

VERY NERVOUS AND IN PAIN

Mississippi Lady Says She Felt Stronger, Better After Taking Cardui.

Greenwood, Miss.—Mrs. W. D. Taylor, of 1313 Carrollton Avenue, this city, has written of her use of Cardui as follows:

"About five years ago, I was in ill health. I suffered a great deal of pain in my sides and in the lower part of my body. I was weak and nervous, and at the least noise I felt like I must scream. At times I would have to go to bed. My head would ache. It would take me three or four days to get over these spells. A friend told me to take Cardui, which I did. After my first bottle, I saw some improvement. When I had taken three bottles, I felt stronger and better than I had in some time. I did not have any more of those bad spells. I certainly recommend Cardui. Thousands of other women recommend Cardui, after having found it of valuable assistance to them in building up their health. Cardui is extracted from medicinal herbs, and contains nothing harmful. Try it in your case."

Relief to Bulging Atlanta Prison Awaits Outcome of Hoover Plan

ATLANTA, Feb. 18.—(AP)—The old prison which lived in the shoe may have been crowded, but her house was not. Compared with the federal prison crowded ponderously in the heart of Atlanta.

Atlanta has a maximum of 1,800 prisoners, the "big house" now bulges with convicts. President Hoover's plan for prison extension, estimated the number at 10,000, but the federal prison is now at 10,000.

In line with President Hoover's plan, the house is seen as a relief to adjust prison population, a "relief" for this condition. It provides two additional prisons, one in the northeast and another west of the Mississippi river.

Atlanta has swept other overcrowded prisons, but Atlanta's has stood nearly 30 years with never a major change. Behind its tall concrete walls, one delivery attempt was thwarted by a quick-thinking turnkey.

Ray Gardner, notorious train robber, an armed group had reached the prison doors on a dash toward freedom. The turnkey say them in time to toss his keys through the steel bars, halting the rebels long enough for other guards to fire.

Gerald Chapman, later hanged, made two sensational escapes, and his escape in crime, "Dutch" Anderson, also escaped.

Nearly half the present prisoners are prohibition offenders, but the prison roster has included many once famous names.

The prison stands well away from other buildings, with a clearing here a quarter of a mile wide around it. An approach to the main entrance is devised to permit scrutiny by a guard before visitors reach striking distance. The walls embrace 27 acres and never have been extended.

An entrance at the side is for vehicles. It is a double-gate affair, operated by electricity. One gate can be opened at a time and entrants can be locked between them for examination. Two newspaper men trailing Earl Carroll's ambulance were thus discovered.

On the walls are a series of towers occupied by guards. The walls are lighted and flood lights blaze across the clearing at night.

First steps toward decreasing the prison population were taken with transfer of some inmates to Leavenworth, Kas. Those transfers did not equal the 1928 increase of 450.

After charges and countercharges.

John W. Snook was replaced as warden by A. C. Aderhold. Many changes in the official organization of the prison followed.

"Iron Horse" To Pierce Cowboy's Paradise After Years of Argument

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 19.—(AP)—The "iron horse" is waiting to snort through one of the west's last frontiers, considered the largest inhabited area in the United States without railways.

The Interstate commerce commission has ordered the Union Pacific system to build 181 miles of railroad from Crane to Crescent Lake, Ore., after three years of controversy.

Within the area to be served by the line are scenes recalling the old west. Locomotives will move over rails built on trails worn into the soil by thundering stage coaches, where holdings of less than a thousand acres are considered small ranches.

Chaps and sheep, cayuse and cows against a background of rimrocks and low lying ranch buildings tell the region's industry. Decaying buildings and stage depots are remnants of an age when jogging prairie schooners crept westward in quest of gold and independence.

Crane and Crescent Lake boast only a few scattered houses, a general store and postoffice, streets that start in the wide open spaces and end in the same manner.

Inhabitants of the section ride 100 miles to the mail box or 50 miles on a windswept road to lay in winter supplies as lightly as the city man hops into a taxi.

The automobile has not entirely displaced the horse. Ranchers and cowboys ride over the arid highways leaving dust clouds to settle over the last frontier.

Gentlemen:
I drive a car on an average of about 30,000 miles a year and I can not put up with one which merely gets me there and gets me back. Because I cover so many miles, I must have a car which is reliable, economical and capable of covering great distances swiftly and without causing fatigue. Service facilities must be available for the cars I drive, and resale value is something I must consider.

I purchased a Marquette because I think it meets all of these requirements better than any other car and I am very well pleased with it.

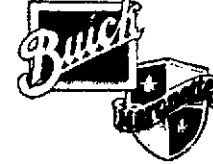

Very truly yours,
